

CONTENTS

Editorial foreword XV

Preface Prof. Mario Notari..... XVII

Preface BCCI..... XIX

Preface Promos Italia..... XXI

Preface Studio Moretto Group..... XXV

Editors and Authors.....XXVII

Notes for readersXXXI

Introduction

Chapter 1 - An introduction to Italian company law

Valerio Piacentini

1.1. Introduction..... 3

1.2. A brief history of Italian commercial law..... 4

1.3. The Italian system and types of company..... 5

1.4. The key role played by entrepreneurs..... 6

1.5. Companies register 7

1.6. Organisational, administrative and accounting structures..... 9

1.7. Partnerships 10

1.8. Autonomy with regard to assets and legal personality 10

1.9. Leonine partnership..... 11

1.10. The ‘Gazzetta Ufficiale’ 11

1.11. The CONSOB..... 12

1.12. Borsa italiana s.p.a..... 12

1.13. Companies that resort to the risk capital market..... 13

SPA – Società per Azioni Company Limited by Shares

Chapter 2 - Incorporation, contributions and segregated assets

Davide Mascagni

2.1. Concept and essential features..... 17

2.2. Evolution of the regulatory framework..... 20

2.3.	The procedure	23
2.4.	Instrument of incorporation: form and content.....	24
2.5.	Incorporation requirements	27
2.6.	Registration with the Companies Register.....	28
2.7.	Nullity of companies limited by shares	30
2.8.	Single-member companies limited by shares.....	32
2.9.	Assets dedicated to a specific business activity.....	34
2.10.	Contributions and share capital.....	37
2.11.	Cash contributions	38
2.12.	Non-monetary contributions	39
2.13.	(Follows on) Valuation	40
2.14.	(Follows on) The alternative system for determining the value of non-monetary contributions	41
2.15.	Potentially risky acquisitions	42
2.16.	Ancillary services	43

Chapter 3 - The shares

Danilo Scarlino

3.1.	Concept and features	45
3.2.	Shares and share capital	46
3.3.	Shareholdings	47
3.4.	Special categories of shares	48
3.5.	(Follows on) Savings shares	51
3.6.	(Follows on) Employee benefit shares.....	53
3.7.	Shares and participating equity instruments	53
3.8.	The circulation of shares	54
3.9.	Share restrictions.....	55
3.10.	Restrictions on the circulation of shares.....	56
3.11.	Company transactions involving own shares	58
3.12.	Cross-shareholdings	62

Chapter 4 - The shareholders' meeting

Grazia Fantoni

4.1.	Organisational models for SPAs: the traditional system, the two- tier system and the one-tier system.....	65
4.2.	The shareholders' meeting: concept.....	66
4.2.1.	Ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings. Responsibilities.....	67

4.3.	The shareholders' meeting procedure	68
4.3.1.	Calling the meeting	68
4.3.2.	The meeting itself and discussions	71
4.4.	Duly convened and quorate shareholders' meetings and the validity of resolutions	72
4.4.1.	Shareholders' meeting quorums (or voting majorities)	72
4.5.	The entitlement to be given the floor and the right to vote	75
4.6.	Representation at shareholders' meetings	77
4.6.1.	Proxies in unlisted companies	77
4.6.2.	Proxies in listed companies	78
4.7.	Conflicts of interest. Abusing majority power to the detriment of the company's assets.....	80
4.7.1.	Abusing majority power to the detriment of the minority	81
4.8.	Shareholder agreements: in particular, voting syndicates	81
4.9.	Invalidity of resolutions passed by the shareholders' meeting: the possibility of annulment and nullity.....	83
4.9.1.	The possibility to annul resolutions.....	83
4.9.2.	Nullity of resolutions.....	85

Chapter 5 - Management and control system

Filippo Arata

5.1.	Key characteristics	89
5.2.	The traditional system.....	90
5.2.1.	Structure and responsibilities of the administrative body.....	90
5.2.2.	How the board of directors works	95
5.2.3.	Company representation.....	99
5.2.4.	Directors' liability vis-à-vis the company: liability actions	101
5.2.5.	The General Managers	105
5.2.6.	The Board of Statutory Auditors.....	105
5.2.7.	How the board of statutory auditors works.....	109
5.2.8.	External audit of accounts.....	112
5.3.	The two-tier system	115
5.3.1.	Supervisory Board.....	116
5.3.2.	Management Board.....	119
5.4.	The one-tier system	120
5.4.1.	Management control committee.....	121
5.5.	External controls.....	122
5.5.1.	Judicial control over management.....	123
5.5.2.	CONSOB.....	125

Chapter 6 - Financial statements

Filippo Arata

6.1.	Introduction	127
6.1.1.	International accounting standards	127
6.1.2.	Italian Civil Code provisions on financial statements	128
6.2.	The structure of the financial statements.....	130
6.2.1.	Balance sheet – Assets	131
6.2.2.	Balance sheet – Liabilities.....	132
6.2.3.	Income statement	133
6.2.4.	The explanatory notes and directors’ report	134
6.3.	Valuation criteria.....	135
6.3.1.	Historical cost method.....	135
6.3.2.	Other criteria	136
6.4.	The procedure to draw up the financial statements	138
6.5.	Profits. reserves. Dividends	140
6.5.1.	Reserves.....	140
6.5.2.	Dividends	141
6.6.	Group consolidated financial statements.....	142

Chapter 7 - Changes to the articles of association

Grazia Fantoni

7.1.	Concept. Procedure.....	145
7.2.	Right of withdrawal.....	146
7.3.	Changes to the share capital.....	150
7.3.1.	Material share capital increases (i.e., against payment or at a cost)	150
7.3.2.	Nominal (or free) share capital increases	154
7.3.3.	Reductions in the share capital	155

Chapter 8 - Bonds

Grazia Fantoni

8.1.	Concept. Types. Differences compared to shares and participating equity instruments	161
8.1.1.	Types of bonds.....	162
8.2.	Bond issuance limits.....	163
8.3.	The issuance procedure	164
8.4.	Convertible bonds	165
8.5.	How bondholders are organised: bondholder meetings and the common representative	167

Chapter 9 - Major shareholdings in listed companies

Simona Locatelli

9.1. Information on major shareholdings.....	171
9.2. Transfer of control in listed companies	174
9.2.1. Mandatory public takeover bids	174
9.2.2. Rules governing public takeover bids and exchange offers	178

SRL - Società a responsabilità limitata Company limited by Quotas

Chapter 10 - SRLs and their incorporation. Contributions.

Loans

Davide Mascagni

10.1. SRLs and their incorporation.....	183
10.2. Shareholder agreements.....	186
10.3. Contributions.....	187
10.4. What may be contributed and how contributions are valued.....	188
10.5. The contribution of work and services	189
10.6. Estimating the value of contributions in the form of assets in kind and receivables.....	190
10.7. Failure to make contributions.....	192
10.8. Quotaholder loans	193

Chapter 11 - Equity stakes

Danilo Scarlino

11.1. Quotaholders' equity stakes: content.....	195
11.2. Specific rights: allocation and amendments.....	196
11.3. Specific rights: content.....	197
11.4. Specific rights: circulation.....	200
11.5. Co-ownership of equity stakes.....	201
11.6. Transferring equity stakes.....	203
11.7. Conflicts among several acquirers.....	204
11.8. Trusteeships.....	205
11.9. Distrain of equity stakes	206
11.10. Pledges, usufruct and seizure of equity stakes	209
11.10.1. How pledges are established	209
11.10.2. Rights of the bare owner	211

Chapter 12 - Withdrawal and exclusion

Filippo Arata

12.1. Quotaholder withdrawal: introduction.....	213
12.2. Withdrawal and the majority's power to make certain amendments to the instrument of incorporation	214
12.3. Withdrawal and companies with an indefinite duration	216
12.4. Withdrawal and non-transferability of equity stakes	217
12.5. Regulations governing withdrawal	217
12.6. Scope of autonomy	219
12.7. Excluding a quotaholder.....	220

Chapter 13 - Decision-making processes for directors and quotaholders

Gabriele Varrasi

13.1. Introduction: decision-making processes for quotaholders and directors.....	223
13.2. Decision-making processes for directors: how they are implemented.....	224
13.3. Decision-making processes for quotaholders: how they are implemented.....	226

Chapter 14 - Directors, monitoring and the financial statements

Francesca Gaveglia

14.1. The running of the company. Management responsibilities.....	229
14.2. Appointment	231
14.3. Term of office: duration and termination.....	231
14.4. Management models and systems.....	232
14.5. Company representation	233
14.6. Conflicts of interest.....	235
14.6.1. Contracts signed by a director with a conflict of interest.	236
14.6.2. Decisions made by directors with a conflict of interest...	237
14.7. Directors' liability.....	239
14.7.1. Liability action on behalf of the company	240
14.7.2. Action brought by individual quotaholders and third parties	242
14.7.3. Action brought by the company's creditors	242
14.8. Liability of quotaholders with a management role	244
14.9. Monitoring of management	245

14.9.1. Checks carried out by individual quotaholders	245
14.9.2. Statutory auditors and independent auditors	247
14.9.3. Judicial inspection	250
14.10. Accounting records and the financial statements	250
14.10.1. Mandatory company records	251
14.10.2. Financial statements	252

Chapter 15 - Quotaholders' decisions

Grazia Fantoni

15.1. Quotaholders' decision-making powers	253
15.2. Decisions made inside and outside the quotaholders' meeting	255
15.3. The quotaholders' meeting procedure: calling the meeting	257
15.3.1. Majorities	258
15.3.2. Representation	259
15.3.3. The Chair and the secretary; minutes for the resolutions passed	260
15.3.4. Plenary quotaholders' meetings	261
15.3.5. Postponing the quotaholders' meeting	261
15.3.6. Voting by correspondence and the use of telematic tools	262
15.4. Null and void quotaholders' decisions	262

Chapter 16 - Changes to the instrument of incorporation

Sara Citterio

16.1. Changes to the instrument of incorporation	267
16.2. Quota capital increases	270
16.3. Quota capital reductions	277

Chapter 17 - Debt securities

Francesca Prenestini

17.1. Debt securities. General characteristics	283
17.2. Provisions in the instrument of incorporation	284
17.3. The decision to issue debt securities	286
17.4. Changes to the terms and conditions of the loan and repayment procedures	287
17.5. Subscription and circulation	288
17.6. Debt securities and bonds	291
17.7. Convertible debt securities	291
17.8. Company transactions and debt securities	292

Common provisions

Chapter 18 - Company groups

Danilo Scarlino

18.1. Regulatory developments regarding company groups.....	297
18.2. The phenomenon of company groups in Italy	298
18.2.1. Corporate control: the different definitions	299
18.2.2. De jure internal control (Art. 2359, par. 1, no. 1).....	300
18.2.3. De facto internal control: dominant influence (Art. 2359, par. 1, no. 2) and joint control	300
18.2.4. De facto external control: contractual control (Art. 2359, par. 1, no. 3).....	302
18.2.5. Control agreements	303
18.2.6. Associations between companies and significant influence.....	304
18.2.7. Cross-shareholdings	306
18.2.8. Group consolidated financial statements.....	307
18.3. Management and coordination activities (Art. 2497 et seq.).....	308
18.3.1. Liability deriving from management and coordination activities (Art. 2497)	309
18.3.2. Countervailing benefits that exclude the liability of the holding company	311
18.3.3. Transparency and information: Article 2497- bis	312
18.3.4. Justification of decisions (Art. 2497- ter)	314
18.3.5. Shareholders' right of withdrawal: Article 2497- quater	315
18.3.6. Intra-group loans: Article 2497- quinquies	318
18.3.7. Scope of application of the provisions on management and coordination (Art. 2497- sexies and Art. 2497- septies) ..	319

Chapter 19 - The dissolution and liquidation

Davide Mascagni

19.1. Reasons for dissolution.....	323
19.2. Companies in liquidation.....	325
19.3. The liquidation procedure	326
19.4. Final dissolution of the company.....	328

Chapter 20 - Extraordinary transactions: transformations.
Mergers and divisions

Gabriele Varrasi

20.1. Transformations: concept and limitations	329
20.1.1. Homogeneous transformations: the transformation procedure	330
20.1.2. (Follows on): Shareholders'/quotaholders'/partners' liability.....	332
20.1.3. Heterogeneous transformations	332
20.2. Mergers: concept and distinctions.....	333
20.2.1. Draft terms of merger	335
20.2.2. Merger approval	337
20.2.3. Protecting the company's creditors.....	338
20.2.4. The merger deed	339
20.3. Divisions: concept and types	339
20.3.1. The procedure	341

Chapter 21 - Innovative start-ups

Fabio Azolina

21.1. Legal framework of reference.....	343
21.2. Legal form and incorporation.....	345
21.2.1. The 'innovative start-up': which type of company?.....	345
21.2.2. Incorporating and enrolling innovative start-ups with the 'special' register.....	347
21.3. Ownership stakes and relations between shareholders/quotaholders.....	351
21.3.1. Categories of shares/quotas	352
21.4. Equity crowdfunding.....	352
21.5. Work for equity	353
21.6. Share/quota capital and changes thereto	354
21.7. Failure to meet requirements and final dissolution of an innovative start-up.....	357

The legislation - Italian Civil Code from Art. 2325 to Art. 2506-quater

(translated with parallel text)

SPA (Arts. 2325 – 2451)	361
Section I – General provisions	361
Section II – Incorporation through public subscription	368
Section III – Promoters and founding shareholders.....	371
Section III- bis – Shareholder agreements.....	373
Section IV – Contributions	375
Section V – Shares and other participating equity instruments.....	384
Section VI – Shareholders’ meeting.....	405
Section VI- bis – Management and control.....	425
Section VII – Bonds.....	462
Section VIII – Company records	472
Section IX – Financial statements.....	475
Section X – Changes to the articles of association.....	514
Section XI – Assets dedicated to a specific business activity.....	533
Section XII	542
Section XIII – Companies in which the government or public bodies hold an equity stake	543
Section XIV – Companies of national interest	545
SAPA (Arts. 2452 – 2461).....	547
SRL (Arts. 2462 – 2483).....	551
Section I – General provisions	551
Section II – Contributions and quotas	555
Section III – Company management and monitoring.....	566
Section IV – Quotaholders’ decisions	575
Section V – Changes to the instrument of incorporation	580
Dissolution and liquidation (Arts. 2484 – 2496).....	587
Management and coordination of companies (Arts. 2497 – 2497- septies)	599
Transformation, mergers and divisions (Arts. 2498 – 2506- quater)	605
Section I – Transformation.....	605
Section II – Company mergers.....	611
Section III – Company division.....	625